Re: Rooming List Information

Dear Brothers:

We are pleased to provide you with the following information that will allow you to access the online Rooming List for use in making hotel reservations in connection with your congregation's assigned regional convention:

Website Address: <https://rl.jw.org>
Event Code: LQYP94QLPWZD
Access Code: 570433

Many properties listed will include a link that will take you directly to the hotel's reservation website where you can complete your room reservation at our negotiated rates. If a group code is required to obtain the negotiated rate, the code will appear on the online Rooming List. A printed copy of the Rooming List will be posted on the information board once the list becomes available.

The rooming information (event and access codes and hotel information) is unique to your convention and is intended only for Jehovah's Witnesses and interested ones associated with your congregation. Therefore, please do not post it on social media or the Internet or share it with others who are not associated with your congregation.

Hotel reservations may be made starting November 4, 2024, at 8:00 a.m. No hotel reservations, whether made by phone or online, should be made prior to that day and time. If you are unable to access the online Rooming List, you may request a copy from the congregation secretary. Likewise, contact him if you have any difficulties making reservations or need information on accommodations for a different convention.

We hope these arrangements help more to benefit from the rich spiritual banquet that Jehovah has prepared for us at our upcoming convention.

Your brothers,
Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
